

Per Hesselmark leaves the Board of Directors of NCAB

Per Hesselmark has today informed NCAB that he wishes to leave his seat on the company's Board of Directors. This is a consequence of R12 Kapital having sold its shares in NCAB.

"We at R12 Kapital have been proud principal owners of NCAB since 2007, comments Per Hesselmark. It has been a fantastic development from sales of approximately SEK 300 million to today's approximately SEK 4.5 billion. We listed the company on the stock exchange in 2018 with a market capitalization of SEK 1.3 billion, which today has grown to approximately SEK 11 billion. The fact that we sold our remaining shares yesterday and that I am therefore leaving the Board is a natural next step. It is with confidence I wish NCAB all the best on its continued journey – it has only just begun."

Christian Salamon, Chairman of NCAB:

"R12 Kapital and Per have contributed greatly to NCAB's growth and profitability through committed and active ownership and board work. We will miss Per and his business sense and energy on the board."
